

At the Augmented Litany
For Those Suffering from Fire

That Thou mightest change Thine anger to mercy, and have mercy upon those people who have suffered from the fires, and who are now in difficult straits, we fervently pray to Thee, hearken and have mercy.

That Thou mightest deliver them from the danger of the terrible disaster, console the widows and orphans, restore the destroyed dwellings, grant peace and tranquillity, and send down Thy rich mercy, we pray Thee, O Source of Mercy, hearken and have mercy.

That Thou mightest deliver all of us, who have angered Thy long-suffering by our evil deeds, from the danger of fearful disasters, and give not Thine inheritance over to destruction, with compunction of heart, we pray to Thee, hearken and have mercy.